

Qualifications

- Profound completed engineering education (university degree, FH, HTL in the field of machine and / or plant engineering)
- Technical training and additional knowledge of handling 2D / 3D CAD software (e.g., Inventor)
- Min. 3 years of professional experience (conditionally necessary) (of advantage in the field of pipeline and tank construction)
- Very good knowledge of German and English

Field of Activity

- Timely and expert execution of constructions within international projects based on accurate specifications
- Creation of P & I schemes, interpretations, calculations and specifications
- Support during commissioning, inspections, acceptance
- Accompanying conversation partner in supplier talks
- Development in an experienced team

Softskills

- High level of sense of responsibility
- accuracy
- High self-motivation
- Teamwork
- Processor-oriented thinking and action
- Versatile handling of MS Office
- Travel willingness

Further information

An international, diverse work environment with an exciting challenge and an attractive endowment for this position is awaiting you. The classification with a working time of 40 hours is provided with approx. € 43.000, -. An overpayment is possible according to qualification and experience.

